Re: United States v. Mark Goldberg
12 Cr. 864 (LAP)

LORETTA A. PRESKA
CHIEF U.S. DISTRICT JUDGE

Dear Chief Judge Preska:

Pursuant to my conversation with defense counsel (Glenn Ripa, Esq.) and Your Honor's law clerk, we write to inform the Court that the sentencing hearing previously scheduled for May 13, 2014 at 10:00 a.m. will no longer be necessary, as the defendant is waiving the Fatico hearing that he previously had sought. Accordingly, there will be no factual disputes with respect to the contents of the Probation Department's Pre-sentence investigation report.

We write also to confirm, again pursuant to a discussion with Your Honor's law clerk, that the sentencing proceeding has been set down for June 10, 2014, at 2:00 p.m.

Finally, we write to advise the Court that defense counsel will serve and file his sentencing memo on or before May 27, 2014, and the Government will file its memo one week later, on June 3, 2014.

Respectfully submitted,

So ordered
Loretta A. Preska
